My dear Wife

I have not received a letter from you in nearly a month but have no doubt you have written me often. I hope the next time the mail is delivered to us I will get several letters from you I received three from G. L. Lee. The latest Nov 11th. I am very well & am more comfortably situated than I have ever been in prison before & like this prison much better than any other I have ever been in. The rations are good & with the box you sent me I am living as well as I desire. & find the nice clothes you sent most comfortable. I hope Capt C & L Hall has called to see you before this & given you a particular account of how I get along. I need still an overcoat blanket & bed sack. St Dunlap was sent to the Union Head with other officers from here & I am afraid I will lose any things you may have sent me in his box. Though he gave me an order to open it & forward to him. we are still encouraged with rumors of exchange but whether there is any reliance to be put in or not I am not able to say. I scarcely ever see a paper & have no accurate information about any thing. The old papers that were wrapped around articles in the box were a great treat to me. I have written you often that I had received information that Fidelity were doing well in Texas (Wessie Bowie Co) & asking you to write him by Hall. ~~we have~~ My letters are very uninteresting to you I know, but you must be content with the knowledge that I am well. There are many subjects that I ^{desire to} write you upon but do not do so because of the chance things which the letter will have to pass. Perhaps God in his mercy will allow us soon to meet. It will be a happy meeting to me. God bless you & my dear little boys. Your devoted Husband
